POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
Clinical Assistant Professor
Program of Educational Administration and Policy
Department of Lifelong Education, Administration, and Policy

The Program of Educational Administration & Policy at the University of Georgia is pleased to announce a Clinical Assistant Professor position to begin August 1, 2018.

Qualifications for the position include an earned doctorate received by the start of the contract with a specialization in Educational Leadership or a closely related field. Candidates must have 5 years of verifiable experience as a district and/or school-based leader in a public school system. Candidates must also be knowledgeable of state educator preparation certification requirements.

Duties of this position include leading recruitment efforts in Georgia school districts to yield cohorts of students for the Master’s, EdS and EdD degree programs. This includes working with district administration and faculty to identify and recruit students and supporting students through admissions. The successful candidate will also advise students through the Tier I and Tier II certification processes. In addition to leading student recruitment efforts, the individual will teach leadership courses, provide clinical supervision, and serve on doctoral committees. The successful applicant will contribute to the development and delivery of face-to-face, blended and online instruction. This position requires teaching the equivalent of a minimum of three graduate-level courses per semester in the program. The candidate will provide service to the institution and profession.

Review of applications will begin October 31, 2017. Applicants should submit: (1) a letter of interest that addresses qualifications in the areas detailed above; (2) a current curriculum vita; and (3) the names and contact information of three professional references.

All materials should be submitted electronically at https://facultyjobs.uga.edu/posting/2841. Address all inquiries to Dr. Sheneka Williams, search committee chair, at smwill@uga.edu.

The University of Georgia is an EEO/AA/Vet/Disability Institution. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation or protected veteran status. Protected veterans and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Persons who need assistance with the accessibility of materials related to this search are encouraged to contact the search committee chair. Hiring is contingent on proof of eligibility to work in the United States and completion of a background check, among other requirements.

This position is contingent on the continued availability of funding.
