

Middle Grades Education

Course of Study for the Master of Education

The Master of Education in Middle Grades Education degree requires at least 36 semester hours of coursework covering the three areas noted in the program summary below.

Program Summary

5 courses in middle grades education

Possibilities include but are not limited to:

- *EDMS 7030E: Schooling and Young Adolescents.
- *EDMS/ETAP 7060S: Theory and Practice of Service-Learning
- EDMS 7050/7050E: Educating Young Adolescents
- EDMS 7080/7080E: Theory and Practice of Middle Grades Curriculum
- EDMS 7090: Instructional Strategies in the Middle Grades
- EDMS 7100: Assessment and Evaluation in the Middle Grades
- *required

3 courses within the Department of Educational Theory and Practice

Possibilities include but are not limited to:

- ETAP 7300: Classroom Management in Culturally Responsive Classrooms
- ETAP 7330: Writing and Teacher Inquiry
- ETAP 6510: Children and Schools Abroad and in the US
- ETAP 7180: Understanding Cultural and Linguistic Diversity in Schools
- ETAP 7700: Sustainability Education: Promising Practices
- ETAP 7120: Children's Social Lives
- ETAP 7210: Social Class, Poverty, and Class-Sensitive Pedagogy

3 courses in your content area

- LLED if your content is language arts
- EMAT if your content is math
- ESCI if your content is science
- ESOC if your content is social studies

1 course related to research

Possibilities include but are not limited to:

- EDMS 7100: Assessment and Evaluation in the Middle Grades
- ETAP 7500: Action Research
- ETAP 7330: Writing and Teacher Inquiry